Dear Jim

Even with the intertwining roles that the Appleby Town Council and Appleby Emergency Response Group share in their upkeep and protection of the town, it is entirely appropriate that the Council seek to formally thank all the AERG volunteers for their continued unconditional hands-on commitment to the community. It is truly appreciated.

To hear that AERG has been recipient of the most distinguished award granted by the High Sheriff of Cumbria prompts hearty congratulations from the Mayor's Office and my fellow Town Councillors. It is much deserved. The volunteer work has certainly eased the anxiety levels of many individuals and, across the wider landscape of the Town, offered so much comfort in these trying times.

I expect and trust our respective bodies will continue the positive alliance that I believe gives the Town optimism and hope for safe realignment and economic growth.

Congratulations again,

With best wishes,
